ULILLIYF BROWN

Wanted for Alleged Theft of Diamonds and Valuable Papers

Los Angeles, March 21.-Mrs. Mary Wilmot of Allentown, Pa., accompanied by members of her family and Private Detective John Reese, is in this city on a search for former Detective George Brown, of Allentown, whom she accuses of having stolen $15,000 worth of diamonds and valuable papers from her safe deposit box remains were buried in the Sacramen- in an Allentown bank, some months Russell C. Wilmot, her son, 21 years old, became insane today, presumably from worry over the affair.

Detective Reese is armed with warrant for Brown, issued at Allentown. Brown was traced as far as Chicago, and it was learned that he purchased a ticket there for Los Anangeles.

Mrs. Wilmot says that Brown tained possession of the key to her safety deposit box through misrepresentation, and fled after taking the dia monds and papers. He was a city detective in Allentown and had borne a good reputation

REPUBLICAN MEMBERS ARMED WITH TARIFF DOCUMENTS

In Defense of Provisions of Payne Bill -Democrats WIII Make Strong Fight Against Every Protective Duty Un-less It Is a Revenue Producer— Payne and Clark Forces to Line Up Against Each Oother on Many Questions-Will Jointly Fight Other Op-positions Where Increased Duty is Asked.

Washington, March 21.-That there will be a lively contest over the tariff bill is evidenced by the preparations that are being made by the sponsors for the bill and by those who op-

Chairman Payne, supported by his chief lieutenant, Representative John Dalzell, Pennsylvania, and the other republican members of the house ways and means committee, together with Representative Broussard, Louisiana, the newly appointed democrat, will be armed with thousands of documents and communications in the defense of the provisions of the Payne bill. The committee's old room is on the house floor of the capitol, and yester-"field headquarters" were established there by Mr. Payne.

Directly beneath the headquarters of the Payne forces are the headquarters of the enemy, the democrats, the Champ Clark has taken possession of John Sharp Williams' old room, and was today occupied with the preparation of the minority. The democratic members had held "councils of war" for the past few days in the Clark headquarters.

They will make a strong fight against every protective duty in the Payne bill, unless it is a revenue pro-

While the Payne and Clark forces will be lined up against each other on many questions, there probably will be several duties on which they will join in fighting other opposition. This is due to the fact that Mr. Payne is not a high tariff man. When an amend-ment is offered to increase the duty of $1 a thousand feet provided for lumber by the Payne bill, Mr. Payne and Clark will stand together in opposition to the increased duty, and each will find that some of his trusted aides have deserted him. This illustrates the feeling that prevails throughout the membership of the house, provided that every member should work for the interests of his individual constituency and that the tariff question is a local one

There is one point about the new bill on which little controversy is expected in the house, but which, it is believed, will be given much consideration in the senate. That is the revision of the present tariff law with regard to ambiguous phraseology. The changes in the wording of the various paragraphs and sections of the bill been made in accordance with the recommendations of Thomas Dougherty, assistant counsel of the treasury department, who has prose-cuted customs cases for the govern-

DOCTOR SAID

Much Sickness Caused by Coffee Drinking.

It is wise to use care in the selection of your table beverage. The experience of several Ills. families proves this and one of them is a very interesting story.

"We were induced to quit coffee about eight years ago because of its injurious effects. The doctor advised us to stop it entirely and we began to use

"While we drank coffee we had headache, sleeplessness, stomach troubles, palpitation of the heart, etc. We have found no injurious effects from Postum, and are clear of all the old coffee troubles. It has a fine color. a delicious flavor, and we feel free to drink all we wish of it. "My brother's family has used Postum for eight years, and has been benefited as we have. A Swedish family, neighbors, used to drink coffee for years but finding it harmful, have quit and now use Postum.

"A number of other families we know here who were habitual coffee drinkers, with the usual results, have now taken up Postum. The doctors here say much sickness is caused by drinking coffee.

"Some of them did not like Postum at first; but when we showed them how to make it dark and rich, according to directions on pkg., they liked it Still pursued by the cruel fate, better than coffee, and it agrees with which seems to have marked the them."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason." Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They fourteen years they have lived at are genuine, true, and full of human ment throughout the country, supplemented with extensive information and data supplied by Major Herbert M. Lord, U. S. A., who was clerk of the ways and means committee during the Dingley revision.

Notable among the changes brought about by the suggestions which were based on the decisions of the courts and the board of general appraisers, are the new paragraphs and the metal schedules providing duties on steel, wood or steel shavings; diamond steel. grit, iron sand and similar articles; chrome metal and feero manganese, ferro tungsten, ferro silicon and simmetals; alloys and other mixed metals not specifically provided for; and the general provilson restricting the use of the terms fron plates, steel plates, and plate iron and steel, to ar ticles having plain surfaces for use as parts of construction but not as tools or instruments in manufactur-

Synthetic camphor, a product of synthetic chemistry, made from oil of turpentine, has been assessed a duty of six cents per pound, the same as is now imposed on refined camphor. As a result of an experiment carried on by the department of agriculture with camphor growing in Florida this in-dustry promises to become of consid-erable importance, it being proposed to plant camphor trees in these sections where the orange industry has been driven out by frosts.

Many changes in the phraseology of paragraphs imposing duties on articles which contain alcohol have been incorporated in the bill, and are expected to increase the revenue consider-

Much complaint was made that olive oil, imported free of duty for manu-facturing purposes, has been used by foreigners of the poorer classes for food. This has resulted in a proposi-tion that olive oil, to be admitted free of duty, must be rendered unfit for use as food by such means as shall be satisfactory to the secretary of the fight against the rats is to be carried

Litigation involving thousands of dollars still is pending in the courts because of the difficulty of determinng under what paragraph of the Dingley law a duty on sake, Japanese rice wine, should be imposed. To prevent any similar difficulties in the future rice wine or sake is specifically includ ed in the paragraph of the Payne bill imposing a duty of 40 cents per gallon on still wines. Numerous other changes for similar purposes have been incorporated in the new bill.

Cleveland, March 21.-The full story of the frustrated attempt to pay over $10,000 in ransom for the return of Willie Whitla became known today. J. P. Whitla, the father, was instructed in a letter from the kidnappers to leave the money in Flatiron park Sat-urday night. If no detectives were about the kidnappers promised they would secure the money and deliver the boy safely to the father in a hotel at Ashtabula at 3 o'clock this morning. Whitla deposited the money as requested, but the Ashtabula police learned of the plans to pay the ran-som and went to the park. The kidnappers are supposed to have seen them, for at 6 o'clock the money was intact and not a man had appeared at the spot at which it had been left. Whitla had a score of detectives and twenty-three members of the Pennsylconstabulary in readiness this city to start a search for the kidnappers as soon as he had safely secured the boy.

Whitla believes that the failure to effect a settlement last night will frighten the kidnapers and they will not communicate with him again. The letter from the captors of Willie came to the parents in Sharon, Pa., Friday

Instructions were given him to go along to Ashtabula on Saturday night, the $10,000 under a rock at the base of a gorge in the park at 10 o'clock. At 3 o'clock on the following morning, if the money was obtained by the kidnapers, they promised that the stolen boy would be sent to the Smith hotel in Ashtabula, unharmed Whitia was instructed specifically that he was to be accompanied by no one when he went to deposit the money

Immediately upon receipt of the let ter Whitla cabled on the private de tectives in his employ. They wanted to place a decoy package of bils at the designated spot, but Whitla would not agree to this. He finally consented to permit the detectives to accompany him to this city and await his mone to start a search for the kidnapers.

At 8 o'clock Whitla left Cleveland for Ashtabula. He was accompanied by Detective McCabe. The latter was act as his bodyguard, but was not to go with Whitla to the park.

A few minutes after 9 o'clock the kidnapers, in keeping with their promise in their first letter, sent a second letter addressed to C. A. White, the Smith hotel, in Ashtabula.

Half an hour later, when no ene-called for the missive, the clerk became curious and opened the envelopand Mayor Cook and Chief of Police Laskey were apprised of its contents. The mayor ordered all of his police to institute a search for the captors. Promptly at 8 o'clock Whitla left the package of bills in the park. He went to the designated spot alone, feeling certain that his compliance with the request of the kidnapers would prove the means of delivering his boy back to him.

Three policemen who had been sent out from the Ashtabula central sta-tion saw Whitla leave the money in the park. They told Chief Laskey of their discovery and received instruc-tions to remain on suard at the park and capture the kidnapers should they appear

In the meantime Whitla returned to the city and had established communication with his detectives in Cleveland. They advised him to go to the hotel for his boy exactly at the time set. He promised to observe or-

Five hours later Whitia started after his boy. On the way a policeman informed him that three officers had been on guard at the park and no one had called for the money.

Whitla was overcome at this news. He went to the park and found his package of money undisturbed. During the remainder of the night and all day today the officers in vain searched the country around Ashtabula. Whitla came to Cleveland and later napped boy, returned today from a fruitless trip to Cleveland. We know no more now," said Mr.

Whitla, "than we did before." It is the general belief here that the abductors, realizing to what an extent the public is aroused over the kidnapping, will not dare to open up cor respondence with Mr. Whitla until public interest has abated.

The terrible anxiety and uncertainty as to their little son's fate has had its effect on both the parents of the boy. The father refuses to sleep at all, and keeps up through sheer willpower. The mother, who will not allow her daughter, Salina, out of her sight, is showing the effects of the worry and today physicians gave orders that she is to be not allowed to see any visitors

INDIANG GRADUALLY BECOMING EXTINCT

Washington, March 21.-The redman is gradually disappearing through the ravages of tuberculosis. To save the Indian race from extinction by this disease and yet lead t into the ways of the white man, is the task which officials of the bureau of Indian affairs have undertaken. When the white man undertook to civilize the Indian tuberculosis was elmost unknown among the race, Today the Indians are dying off at the rate of approximately a thousand per annum. Of all the tribes none seem to be so suspectible as the Sioux in dians in South Dakota. Last year nearly one thousand members of this tribe was afflicted. They live in unsanitary surroundings.

Officials are determined to teach the Indian the value of sanitation, personal cleanliness and other preventa-
